plashes the money to enable them to continue their careers in the various arts. The result is a series of brilliant complications.

"A MATRIMONY A FAILURE" AND "RETURN TO THE RIGHT" AT CRITERION

The feature picture of the Criterion Theatre this Saturday is, "A Matrimony A Failure." The comedy is a highly diverting one dealing with an average little Main Street town, half of the inhabitants of which suddenly discover that owing to a legal technicality they are not married after all. Just how the situation is righted and how the amusing dilemma in which all the folks concerned find themselves in before this is done, is hilariously told in the picture. "Return to the Right" is a picture which will be the Sunday attraction. It is a boogie play, hilariously funny, acted comically, and gives the audience a good laugh. Two crooks and an innocent sufferer at the hands of the law have the feature parts. The innocent boy has "done time" to save the two crooks, and when it is over they all rejoice in the equity, where the boy lives. Here the wise man of the dark nights are turned loose upon the innocent and unsuspecting country, bumpkins with blithely humorous results.

NEW PENDELTON ARCADE TO SHOW REVIVAL OF FEATURES DURING COMING WEEK

The New Pendleton Arcade, formerly the Argonne, now under the management of the Pendleton Theatre, will have a week of revivals, beginning this Sunday, with Betty Compton and Thomas Meighan in "The Miracle Man." The feature on Monday will be "Behold My Wife," on Tuesday, Gloria Swanson and Elliot Dexter will be seen in "Don't Change Your Husband." Wednesday's feature is "The Wife Who Walked Alone." Thursday, "Male and Female," and last Friday, John Barrymore in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

"THE WOMAN WHO WALKED ALONE," COOGAN IN "TROUBLE" AT OLYMPIA

"The Woman Who Walked Alone," featuring Dorothy Dalton, will be presented at the Olympia Theatre this Saturday. The picture, produced by George Melford, is lavishly invested, in particular with regard to the settings and the costumes. The action is swift and colorful and moves with tremendous speed. The story is of an English socialite, who, wrongly accused by her jealous husband, goes to South Africa as the "Woman Who Walked Alone." There she becomes involved in a series of highly exciting situations.

"THE BROKEN SILENCE," "THREE LIVE OYSTERS" AND "EASY MONEY" AT COMET

Annie G. Nilsson and Norman Kerry are the featured players in "Three Live Oysters," which will be shown at the Comet Theatre this Saturday. The story deals with three men who, after being reported "killed," are found to be German spies and on reaching London prove themselves to be no less than spies.

On Sunday Jack Horne will be seen in "The Broken Silence." Many convictions have been obtained through the weaving of a net of circumstances around a person charged with a crime. In some instances it has been responsible for the death penalty being imposed by the presiding judge. The majority of people, no doubt, believe that more evidence than that of a circumstantial nature should be produced to cause a conviction. This picture strongly depicts the great chance for error in such cases. Here is a case of physical and mental evidence which almost leads to the conviction of a man, but which, in the end, proves to be a mistake.

On Monday and Tuesday, the Argonne Theatre will show "The Danger of Little Deeds" and "The Night Roar at the Star." On Wednesday, the Argonne Theatre will show "The Danger of Little Deeds" and "The Night Roar at the Star." On Thursday, the Argonne Theatre will show "The Danger of Little Deeds" and "The Night Roar at the Star." On Friday, the Argonne Theatre will show "The Danger of Little Deeds" and "The Night Roar at the Star."

PRESIDENT IS "FEARFUL"

In reply to the appeal of the women to use his influence toward the passage of the Anti-Lynching bill, President Harding says he is "fearful" that the bill would not be passed during the present session. Harding's excuse, the Tariff and Bonus bills which are before the Senate, is a good one. The natural common which enters the minds of those who are interested in the bill, is that life is cheap. The preservation of life is secondary to the President and the Senate. And while we have some appreciation of the importance of the Tariff and Bonus bill, but we would ask the question of those who make the laws, which is of more importance?

The colored people are peculiarly interested in the anti-lynching bill, because it is their lives which are at stake. They know that as long as one of their number is lynched in Georgia or Texas with impunity, the life of no Negro is secure from mob law in New York or Massachusetts.

With our limited knowledge of the power and influence of the President of the United States, which is not in power, we can see why the President should be "fearful" that any measure would not pass in which they were really interested. We are informed that President Harding is in consultation daily with his Cabinet and party leaders about all such legislation in which he is interested. We are wondering what is he doing toward the anti-lynching bill?

As chief executive of the Nation, it is the duty of the President to be interested in those things which affect the Nation. If at this stage of the game, the President is fearful, we want to know is he "fearful" of doing his duty? Is he fearful that he will not have the courage to urge the Senate to pass a bill for the protection of life?

We hope that fear will be removed from the President's heart, and courage to do his duty will enable him to act speedily in the interest of humanity.

NO KU KLUX FOR US

It has been reported that the Imperial head of the Ku Klux Klan is now willing to revise the ritual of the Klan so as to admit Negroes and Jews.

In giving out this news the Imperial head of the Klans, young Clark of Atlanta stated that this agreement was reached after a conference with Marcus Garvey who is President General of the U. N. I. A. If Mr. Garvey made a promise with Mr. Clarke to deliver the Negroes to the Klan, he is fooling not only Mr. Clarke, but he is fooling his own self.

The Negroes of this country are law abiding and peaceful while the Ku Klux Klan is an outlaw with the regular constituted authorities of the law and no doubt, but that they want the "cheatery" out of the Klan.

The Ku Klux and the Negroes have nothing in common. They couldn't work together if they would. So Mr. Garvey or anyone else is losing time to even hint a league between the two.

BREWSTER WINS IN MISSOURI

From Baltimore Herald

We congratulate Brother Mitchell of The Argus and the Negro citizenship in Missouri over the apparent victory of R. R. Brewster for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Brewster received the bulk of the Negro Republican votes throughout Missouri and deserved them, as he came out flat-footedly and unequivocally in favor of the Anti-Lynching Bill, and took advanced ground in favor of political and civil justice for the Negro.

From every part of the country it seems that the Negro is awake and is voting for himself instead of mere party men. It is well.

SIGNS OF APPROACHING TROUBLE

By William Pickens

Storms do not drop out of a calm sky. They have their little rumbles. When the cyclone is in the distance, the light breezes steadily increasing precede it. The leaves rustle, loose bits of paper stir and fly up. Then the trees begin to sway and crack—shingles and tin roofs loosen up and fly about—and with these little warnings and disturbances the storm finally breaks on our heads.

There are signs of the approaching storm of a racial conflict in some northern communities. Colored people and white people want to avoid this terror must begin "to look out" and are beginning to "look out" by the way of the colored people on the cars and in other public places. Southerners and Southern sentiment people on the cars and in other public places. Southerners and Southern sentiment people on the cars and in other public places. Southerners and Southern sentiment people on the cars and in other public places.

They do not see the cowardly reflection upon themselves.

The civilized white people of the North, who do not want savagery, brutality and blood, but better get their heads together to check these uncultured animals of both races and all colors. For there are naturally some colored people who are just as much fools from among the colored people as there are among the white people.

Another amusing fact is in this town—some people think that nothing can be done without the holy kiss of their hands. What fools these mortals be.

While it is true that money plays an important part in the affairs of men, yet there are some things that cannot be bought with money.

How about a "Truth Week." That is, everybody tell the truth just for one week.

Facts About Negro in St. Louis

Consolidation In Business Urged—Fight For Schools Must Be Kept Up—Threatening Need For New Home Sites—Negro Labor Lost Ground

By GEORGE W. BUCKNER

The St. Louis Negro must wake up and make up quickly for his economic and political backwardness. His status is threatened. This is not the view of a pessimist or an alarmist, but the view of a realist. The facts are before him. Suppose a year's progress of the St. Louis Negro is estimated July 21st. Let us review certain facts relative to Negro life during this period. What do we find?

Business Little Changed
Business has made but little progress in the past year. In volume of sales, it has made but little progress. In the past year, in volume of sales, it has made but little progress.

Educational Progress Stagnant
The educational progress of the St. Louis Negro has not been too encouraging. It is not the fault of the principals and teachers, who are among the best in America. But it is the fault of the community.

Home Sites—Negro Labor Lost Ground
The St. Louis Negro must wake up and make up quickly for his economic and political backwardness. His status is threatened. This is not the view of a pessimist or an alarmist, but the view of a realist.
